

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - JULY 6, 1900

W. P. WALTON.

For Congress.

HON. G. G. GILBERT

Of Shelby County.

BRYAN AGAIN NOMINATED.

TEVENSON LEADING FOR VICE PRESI-

DENT.

KANSAS CITY, July 6.

The convention was unable to make a nomination for vice president last night and adjourned till this morning, with Adial Stevenson in the lead.

The name of Bryan was presented to the convention by Hon. W. D. Oldham, deputy attorney general of Nebraska. His remarks were greeted by the wild applause, and confusion reigned for some time after he had finished. Then the matchless statesman was nominated by acclamation amid the most unparalled scene of enthusiasm.

The committee did not get up in time to report the platform at the morning session, but it was reported at the afternoon session and put through with a whoop.

While the platform specifically reaffirms the 16 to 1 plank of the Chicago platform, the resolutions committee decided that the question of imperialism dwarfs all others, the platform saying: "While other issues are vital, the question of imperialism strikes at the very existence of the republic."

Gov. Beekham was called on to make a speech, while the convention was waiting for the committee to report yesterday and he received the ovation of the day.

The great convention at Kansas City was pulled off at noon on the glorious Fourth in the brand new hall, 340 feet long and 198 feet wide, which was filled to the doors and was gorgeous with bunting. Chairman Joas rapped for order at 12:02, a prayer was offered by a good brother and the mayor of Kansas City delivered the welcome address. As he closed, Senator Hill, of New York, entered the hall and being recognized, was given a grand ovation. After it had somewhat subsided, Gov. Thomas, of Colorado, was introduced as temporary chairman, who read a type written speech, full of good points. At its conclusion, Mr. Campau, of Michigan, offered a resolution for reading the Declaration of Independence, which was adopted, and the band played the "Star Spangled Banner." Just then a bust of W. J. Bryan was unveiled and enthusiasm went wild. When the cheering had subsided, Hammon, of Michigan, read the immortal declaration, which was greeted with applause that shook the building. Miss Fulton, of New York, sang the "Star Spangled Banner," the band played "America" and led by Miss Fulton the 20,000 people broke out into the stirring song, "My Country 'Tis of Thee," amid enthusiasm never to be forgotten. The various committees were then announced and after the lively notes of "Dixie" had filled the hall, the convention adjourned till 4 P.M.

It was 4:45 when the convention convened and the committees not being ready to report another adjournment was had till 8 o'clock. At that hour Congressman James D. Richardson, of Tennessee, was presented as permanent chairman and his tribute to Mr. Bryan caused a most remarkable demonstration. The committee on resolutions still not being able to report the convention adjourned till yesterday morning.

The delay was caused by the determined opposition to a specific declaration for free coinage at 16 to 1. As soon as the committee met the drafts of three proposed platforms were submitted—one by Mr. Metcalf, of Nebraska; another by Mr. Van Wyk, of New York, and a third by Mr. Garrard, of Georgia. The one offered by Mr. Metcalf was received as an expression of Mr. Bryan's views, and contained a specific declaration in favor of free coinage at 16 to 1. This specific declaration was omitted from the two other platforms. All three contained denunciations of trusts and imperialism. A long discussion followed, and at 3:30 o'clock yesterday morning the committee, by a vote of 27 to 25, decided upon a 16 to 1 plank.

It was the intention to nominate Mr. Bryan on Independence day, but the best laid plans slipped a cog, when a fight came up over a specific declaration for free silver. Mr. Bryan telegraphed: "If they want an equivocal platform, then let them nominate an equivocal candidate."

Hon. James B. McCreary had the honor of presenting the permanent chairman to the convention.

There seems to be no disposition at Kansas City, as there was at Philadelphia, to stretch the proceedings of the convention for the accommodation of the bargain counters.

The Kentucky delegation made Gov. McCrory's chairman and selected Senator Blackburn for the committee on resolutions. National Committee man Urey Woodson was re-elected.

The assessment on the Kentucky delegates and alternates for the parlor in the Coates House, used for Kentucky headquarters, amounts to $5 each. The room stands the delegates $35 per day.

Mrs. J. H. Cohen, of Salt Lake City, Utah, who came as an alternate but who was made a delegate because one of the Utah delegates was sick, sat among the men perfectly at home. Mrs. Cohen wore a black hat, white waist and black skirt.

Gerge Benge, of Clay county, was struck by the South-bound train and seriously injured, just North of the London depot.

E. D. Standiford, Jr., who had a checkered career, died in Louisville Wednesday.

During the meeting of the New York

delegation, Croker accused Hill of not supporting the ticket in 1896 and Hill taunted Croker with being absent in Europe at critical times. This led to the defeat of Hill by Tammany's influence for a place on the committee on resolutions, furnishing the most sensational incident of the day. By a vote of 30 to 28, Augustus Van Wyk was chosen over Hill to represent New York in the construction of the platform.

THERE was never a time when it was more important for the people to assert themselves as now, so we urge a full attendance at the precinct conventions on the 14th. Let every democrat attend, filled with the spirit of harmony and unite upon the best man for governor. This county is overwhelmingly for Mr. Black, so far as we can discover, but there is no spirit of contention in his favor and no disposition to regard as an enemy the man who prefers another candidate. Let us come together, talk over the matter like brothers and then do what seems best for the party. We must down the assassination sympathizers and send to the rear the man who will not say whether, if he is elected, he will pardon the assassin or not. His silence may be taken that he will. Let us give him no chance to cheat the gallows and the penitentiary.

The decrease in the use of alcoholic drinks must ever remain the great aim of all anti-temperance legislation, as well as of moral and social reform.

The tour of Hon. James D. Black through Southern and Western Kentucky has been like the triumphal march of the great army. He has made friends everywhere and if he does not go in the convention with enough votes to nominate him all signs go for naught. The people recognize while the other candidates are good men, Mr. Black is pre-eminently the one to unite all the factions and lead us to certain victory. The man from the mountains is the man of the hour.

THOSE recent converts to the republican assassination party, the Louisville Post and Dispatch, are trying to run the old machine. They want that party to nominate McKenzie Moss in the 3rd and Judge Beckner in the 10th for Congress, both democratic bolters, but their advice will go unheeded. The republicans may compliment turncoats with chairmanships and clerkships of conventions, but they say them nay where there is any prospect of pap to be had.

"I LIVE in K. C., ask me," is the inscription worn by the information man in Kansas City. If they are as ignorant of matters as some of the "laformation" men at the Louisville reunion, the delegates and others won't be able to get much out of them.

THE Louisville Times with its illuminated pages of Bryan and the fac simile of the Declaration of Independence was a splendid evidence of the capabilities of the great printing office from which it is published.

LAND AND STOCK.

At Chicago a carload of yearling hifers sold at $5.

George Ketcham has refused $35,000 for Crescents, 2,071.

Thomas Metcalf had a 50-acre field of wheat to average 30 bushels.

Len Shanahan bought of J. D. Overstreet a good combined mare for $75.

Bales & Robinson sold the 101 cattle they were slopping at Taylor's at 5c. Tony Beazley, of Garrison, bought 200 feeders for future delivery, at 4 to 4c.

FOR SALE—Two high-grade cows with young calves. R. H. Crow, Shelby City.

W. E. Amon has sold to Tony Beazley eight feeders for Oct. 10 to 15 delivery at 1½c.

The Marion county farmers have combined to get the best prices for their wheat.

Lutes & Co. sold to J. C. Johnston, of Boyle, 50 fat hogs, averaging 190 pounds, at 4.65.

Admiral Dewey is the name of a promising colt by Binglin, 2,061, dam Name Hawk, 2,04.

George Carter has a sheep that eats all the chickens it can get at. It is especially fond of "fryers."

FOR SALE—A six-year-old mare, dark brown, 1½ hands high. C. L. Hensley, Kingsville.

Matt Cohen, of Richland, offered Jones Bros., of North Middletown, $2,500 for Montgomery Chief.

O. P. Huffman bought of W. B. Wright a bunch of butcher cattle at 4c and of E. L. Reinhart a lot of hogs at 4c.

At court Monday, J. W. Herndon made a record to shoot at, selling a pair of mules for $125. Another pair brought $300.—Richmond Climax.

John Weisiger has bought the Stodhill livery stable building in Danville for $1,450, says the Advocate. The building will be torn down and a business house put up on the site.

F. P. Bishop bought of John Robinson 110 wethers at 3c and of Lutes & Co. 100 of same at same. He sold to R. T. Hobbs 100 ewes at 4c and to George L. Wood a lot of butcher stuff at 4c.

A. G. Willsey sold to Anderson & Spillman 140 acres of wheat at 80c. R. G. Evans sold to Tip Bruce 106 acres of timothy hay in the field for $1,350. He sold the same last year for $840.—Advertiser.

A dispute from Cincinnati says that Mrs. Broncker, sister of the late Gov. Goebel, has found his will, dated four years ago. It gives everything to his brother, Arthur.

Gerge Benge, of Clay county, was struck by the South-bound train and seriously injured, just North of the London depot.

E. D. Standiford, Jr., who had a checkered career, died in Louisville Wednesday.

During the meeting of the New York

A prison official has ample opportunity for an exhaustive study of Crime and its Criminology. Therefore a new book by Rev. August Drnham, chaplain at San Quentin, Cal., entitled "The Criminal," is a work which commands wide recognition as a scientific study of the man behind the bars. Some of his conclusions, well substantiated by long observation, are very interesting, while in the main confirmatory of those of other investigators. Originally, we are told, all crime has its source in anthropological sources. "In time, the personal factors may become so assimilated with the social mass as to almost lose their personal identity." The social element then becomes as fully the feeder of the criminal propensity as the more strictly personal propensities. The greatest proportion of the crimes of civilization are of this kind. The fluctuation of industrial and economical enterprise, the hardships facing the wage-earner, are often a direct invitation to crime. "Intemperance is the chief source of crime, both directly and indirectly. The decrease in the use of alcoholic drinks must ever remain the great aim of all anti-temperance legislation, as well as of moral and social reform."

The author is strongly in favor of state industrial and employment bureaus, to aid the working classes to obtain work, and if necessary furnish tools and temporary assistance. California has such an institution which in one year assisted 5,000 individuals to employment. Money thus expended by the state, under government subsidy and inspection, "will flow back again into its resources, whereas in pauper support and almshouses it represents only dead capital and congested outlay in gratuitous, though laudable, charities."

By the pneumatic hammer the marble carver can strike 6,000 blows a minute as against 30 by hand, and thus can give his whole attention and skill to guiding the chisel. Mechanical power is bringing to the horse the emancipation which it has brought to the artisan. And yet, as a scientist recently said to a sportman who feared that the horse will fall into disuse: "Automobiles will not displace horses until typewriters displace pianos." In their proper field the noblest of animals will never go out of fashion.

"The days of frontier life in Arizona are fast fading away," remarks the Tombstone Epitaph in a congratulatory tone. "That's a fact," comments the Prescott Courier, published in the same territory. "When we came here, over 20 years ago, we could leave all the doors of our house wide open and all sorts of valuable plunder scattered around the yard, go away, stay a week and find nothing molested upon our return. Now, a broken-backed grubbing hoe left out overnight disappears."

Physicians say that there is no person who can retain his or her mobility of character under long-continued bodily distress. The argument that some invalids and cripples have beautiful dispositions does not apply, for the reason that although such persons imagine themselves in constant pain, there are really long intervals of relief and quietude.

Moved to pity by the hard-luck story of a tramp who called at his Washington residence a few evenings ago, Congressman Crump, of Michigan, gave the fellow a pair of good shoes. Then he missed two fine umbrellas, at once followed the man, and compelled him to carry them back and put them where he found them.

Moved to pity by the hard-luck story of a tramp who called at his Washington residence a few evenings ago, Congressman Crump, of Michigan, gave the fellow a pair of good shoes. Then he missed two fine umbrellas, at once followed the man, and compelled him to carry them back and put them where he found them.

Physicians say that there is no person who can retain his or her mobility of character under long-continued bodily distress. The argument that some invalids and cripples have beautiful dispositions does not apply, for the reason that although such persons imagine themselves in constant pain, there are really long intervals of relief and quietude.

One of the proprietors of the Stanford Produce Co. has just returned from Baltimore, where he bought two cars of Granite and Chilhowie wool, which will sell at wholesale and some retail.

STANFORD PROVISION CO.,
J. Gold and J. Blawoff.

Moved to pity by the hard-luck story of a tramp who called at his Washington residence a few evenings ago, Congressman Crump, of Michigan, gave the fellow a pair of good shoes. Then he missed two fine umbrellas, at once followed the man, and compelled him to carry them back and put them where he found them.

As a contribution to the discussion of higher education for women the testimony of Miss Caroline Hazard, the new president of Wellesley college, is important. She says more Wellesley girl graduates than Harvard boys, proportionately, have married.

A writer in an eastern paper estimates that there were 500,000,000 fowls in the United States last year, and that the number of eggs produced was about 17,400,000,000. The value of these fowls and of their product is set down at $420,000,000.

Notice! The Stanford Produce Co. has laid off for three months on account of the market being so dull. They will not buy iron, rags, pottery or produce of any kind.

One of the proprietors of the Stanford Produce Co. has just returned from Baltimore, where he bought two cars of Granite and Chilhowie wool, which will sell at wholesale and some retail.

STANFORD PROVISION CO.,
J. Gold and J. Blawoff.

Moved to pity by the hard-luck story of a tramp who called at his Washington residence a few evenings ago, Congressman Crump, of Michigan, gave the fellow a pair of good shoes. Then he missed two fine umbrellas, at once followed the man, and compelled him to carry them back and put them where he found them.

As a contribution to the discussion of higher education for women the testimony of Miss Caroline Hazard, the new president of Wellesley college, is important. She says more Wellesley girl graduates than Harvard boys, proportionately, have married.

A writer in an eastern paper estimates that there were 500,000,000 fowls in the United States last year, and that the number of eggs produced was about 17,400,000,000. The value of these fowls and of their product is set down at $420,000,000.

Notice! The Stanford Produce Co. has laid off for three months on account of the market being so dull. They will not buy iron, rags, pottery or produce of any kind.

One of the proprietors of the Stanford Produce Co. has just returned from Baltimore, where he bought two cars of Granite and Chilhowie wool, which will sell at wholesale and some retail.

STANFORD PROVISION CO.,
J. Gold and J. Blawoff.

Moved to pity by the hard-luck story of a tramp who called at his Washington residence a few evenings ago, Congressman Crump, of Michigan, gave the fellow a pair of good shoes. Then he missed two fine umbrellas, at once followed the man, and compelled him to carry them back and put them where he found them.

As a contribution to the discussion of higher education for women the testimony of Miss Caroline Hazard, the new president of Wellesley college, is important. She says more Wellesley girl graduates than Harvard boys, proportionately, have married.

A writer in an eastern paper estimates that there were 500,000,000 fowls in the United States last year, and that the number of eggs produced was about 17,400,000,000. The value of these fowls and of their product is set down at $420,000,000.

Notice! The Stanford Produce Co. has laid off for three months on account of the market being so dull. They will not buy iron, rags, pottery or produce of any kind.

One of the proprietors of the Stanford Produce Co. has just returned from Baltimore, where he bought two cars of Granite and Chilhowie wool, which will sell at wholesale and some retail.

STANFORD PROVISION CO.,
J. Gold and J. Blawoff.

Moved to pity by the hard-luck story of a tramp who called at his Washington residence a few evenings ago, Congressman Crump, of Michigan, gave the fellow a pair of good shoes. Then he missed two fine umbrellas, at once followed the man, and compelled him to carry them back and put them where he found them.

As a contribution to the discussion of higher education for women the testimony of Miss Caroline Hazard, the new president of Wellesley college, is important. She says more Wellesley girl graduates than Harvard boys, proportionately, have married.

A writer in an eastern paper estimates that there were 500,000,000 fowls in the United States last year, and that the number of eggs produced was about 17,400,000,000. The value of these fowls and of their product is set down at $420,000,000.

THALES H. WRIGHT

Is a candidate for Assessor of Lincoln county, subject to the action of the democratic party.

Drs. Slavin & Phillips
OSTEOPATHISTS,

Will be in Danville Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

Will be in Stanford Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

Office in the Thompson Building, Stanford, office hours 9 A.M. to 1 P.M.

OSTEOPATHY.

This Science originated and developed by Dr. A. T. Still, of Kirksville, Mo., depends on the principles of Anatomy and Physiology for its results. It requires no salts, no drugs, no rubbing, no surgical

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - JULY 6, 1900

E. C. WALTON, BUSINESS MANAGER

The best materials combined with care, skill and accuracy insure good results. No other methods are ever used in our prescription work. Penny Drug Store.

PERSONAL AND SOCIETY GOSSIP.

Mrs. W. J. YAGER and son returned to Louisville Tuesday.

MISS ALLIE ARNOLD, of Lancaster, is with Miss Allie Fish.

MISS ELLA HAY, of Perryville, is with the Misses Feland.

MISS LEE BOHANNON, of Danville, is with Mrs. W. T. Smith.

MISS NELLIE DILLION, of Lancaster, is with Mrs. Matilda Nevis.

Mrs. SAM WILHITE, of Lexington, spent the 4th with friends here.

MISS DOT CAMINOTZ, of Houstonville, is the guest of Miss Lucille Cooper.

COL. W. G. WELCH is spending a few days at Crab Orchard Spelings.

MISS COOPER FELAND has gone to Louisville to visit Miss Ida Lithgow.

MISS SUSIE THOMPSON, of Mt. Vernon, is the guest of Mrs. E. J. Brown.

Mrs. W. D. Atherton went to Louisville Wednesday with a view to locating.

MISS OLIVIA BALDWIN, of Madison, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Shanks.

MISS JENNIE BURNSIDE, of Garfield, was with her sister, Mrs. George A. McRoberts.

T. H. WRIGHT, of Moreland, is in Kansas City attending the democratic convention.

Mrs. MARTHA REED, of the Danville News, cabled with some pretty girls at our office on the 4th.

MISS LATRA JAHOR went to Lebanon yesterday to remain with her homefolks until Sept. 1.

DR. AND MRS. W. W. BRIGGS, of Richmond, are spending a few weeks with their parents at Crab Orchard.

F. M. SHUMATE and Geo. W. Coulter, excellent democratic officials of Boyd, took in the celebration here.

MASTERS JOHN AND HOMER IDOL, of Lexington, are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. White.

MISS MARY NOEL, of Danville, even prettier than she used to be when she lived here, is visiting the Misses Eastland.

THE Columbia News says that Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Grissom gave an elegant party in honor of Miss Callie Harton.

Our faithful and excellent Lancaster correspondent, Col. M. D. Hughes, and Hon. R. H. Tomlison, were here Tuesday.

MRS. JOSEPH COFFEE went up to Livingston yesterday to see her brother, Mr. T. J. Ballard, who continues very now.

MRS. E. S. ALLENHURST, editor of the Mt. Vernon Signal, was here on the 4th and assisted the band boys. He is a fine musician.

MIL. BUTLER ENGLEMAN and children, of Paint Lick, were here on the 4th. Mr. E. says everybody is for Black in his section.

JUDGE ALDEN has joined the select and respectable few who go clean shaven, and it gives him quite a distinguished appearance.

Judge B. P. Jacobs and wife, of Danville, have gone to Wequatosong, Mich., for the summer and expect their papers sent to that delightful resort.

Mrs. ASHLEY LILLARD left yesterday to take a position at Cumberland Falls Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Yeager also went to that cool retreat for a sojourn.

AMONG our pleasant Garrard county callers on the 4th, were Messrs. J. W. Simpson and J. C. Thompson, and Misses Lizzie Simpson and Mary Thompson.

COL. J. W. CAPERTON, who was painfully hurt several days ago by falling from his buggy, is able to be out, much to the relief of sources of friend.

Richmond Photograph.

MISS SUE WOODS was in town Wednesday night for the first time since her terrible accident and everybody was delighted to see her. She is far from recovered yet, however.

MRS. GESSIE PHILLIPS will have her office in the Pennington building on lower Main and count Mrs. J. S. Owsley's. She is thoroughly in love with her profession of Osteopathy and is fully confident of its power to heal diseases.

MR. JOSH T. STONE, of Washington, who on a visit to his parents in Casey, brought his mother, Mrs. W. D. Stone, up Tuesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Tate. Mr. Stone is in the health and enjoyed our celebration very much.

SQUIRE JOHN BAILEY came up from Washington county to attend the celebration Wednesday. He is a red hot Black man and says the wads around him are full of democats for the gentlemen of Knox. Get a Benedict was also up from Washington.

"NOMINATE Black and many a republican in the mountains will help elect him," remarked a prominent Knox county republican to an L. J. reporter as he passed through on yesterday's trail. "I have never scratched, but I am for Black, and will vote and work for him," he added.

IT was indeed a pleasure to welcome our old friend, Col. Thomas A. Lee, of Stanford, who was accompanied by his charming wife, nee Shanks. Tom Lee is one of nature's noblemen, manly, gentle and brave. He is a gentleman wherever you find him, in the parlor, the office, or on the sandy plains of New Mexico where lately he has been forced by delicate health to spend his time. His visits to old home are all too infrequent and the city of his native needs more of his kind.—Richmond Climax.

DUT. L. B. COOK announces that the Lincoln County Medical Society will meet in Stanford on Tuesday, the 10th. Dr. W. L. Lowder will read a paper on the "Etiology and Pathology of Entero-Coeliitis" and Dr. Frank Gridier will give the Diagnosis and Treatment. Dr. J. G. Carpenter will discuss the subjects: "Be a Man," "Be a Gentleman," "Be a First-Class Doctor or Quit the Profession."

A NEGRO man working with Singleton's tinsmith died from the excessive heat in the West End yesterday.

THE FOURTH RIGHT ROYALLY CELEBRATED IN STANFORD.

Another 4th of July has been duly celebrated and our people as usual did themselves proud. The program given in our last was carried out faithfully and thousands of people seemed to enjoy it. They were here from all quarters of the county, while Casey, Boyle, Rockcastle, Franklin and Garrard helped largely to swell the crowd. Perfect order was observed and nothing occurred to mar the enjoyment of the day, except the shower that came up just as the parade was moving and which disfigured not a few dresses. There was no speaking, though many orators were invited. This was disappointing to some, but the most of us enjoyed its absence. The Stanford brass band and the little ladies of the orphanage furnished the music and were highly complimented. Bicycle and barrel races, pie eating and other contests occupied the afternoon and at night a highly creditable display of fireworks was given for an hour. A big ball at Walton's Opera House wound up the program of the day and when in the wee sum' hours the dancers went home they were as tired a set of belles and beaux as ever celebrated the glorious 4th.

The band boys say that Edgar S. Allright of Mt. Vernon, and Livingston Andrews, of Corbin, helped them out on the 4th. Both are good horn players.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

HAMILTON for good watch work.

We sell Hanan's shoes. J. P. Jones.

NICE LINE of Fresh Cakes at Warren & Shanks'.

Line of sample harness at a bargain. J. C. McChary.

BARGAINS in Ice Chests and Refrigerators at Warren & Shanks'.

MAGIC SAFETY coal oil. Something new, try it. Geo. H. Farris & Co.

NICE LINE of Bangs, four different styles cheap. G. H. Farris & Co.

I HAVE for sale some very fine Game hens, pullets and stags. S. M. Saulay.

PRESS FOR SALE. New 11x22" Gordon press for sale cheap. Address W. P. Walton.

ONLY two more days on gents' underwear. Harry if you would say money. John P. Jones.

SETTLING time is here and I need every cent that is due me. Please pay my account. H. C. Bapley.

FARMERS are requested to call in and see our Old Hickory and Brown wagons. Best made. W. A. Carson.

WEDNESDAY was a good day for the soda fountains. John H. Meier sold 1,139 glasses and G. L. Penny over $90.

MISS SACRAY will be in Lancaster next Friday and Saturday, July 6 and 7. Go and have that picture made.

STONE your wheat with next 1 cent per bushel per month and get the benefit of any advance. J. H. Baughman & Co.

FOR RENT—Store-house in Moreland 22x62, new; small dwelling attached. Best stand in town. J. W. Houston, Moreland, Ky.

Don't say we told you, but the crowd here Wednesday got away with 50-odd kegs of beer. It was a splendid day to dispose of cold drinks.

HENDERSON HAIGHT won the suit in which his brothers, D. A. Haught and John G. Haught sued the homestead in which the defendant lives.

THE TAX books are now ready and those who desire to pay will please call at my office and do so, as it will be gladly received. S. M. Owens.

OUR merchants and others have thousands of yards of hunting and flags by the wagon load that they will sell at a big discount. Now's your chance.

DEATH. Mrs. Samuel Clarkson, who was a daughter of Frank Hughes, died at her home near McKinney Tuesday of consumption, after a lingering illness.

The crowd of people of the Turnerville section will have a "grand picnic" Friday, Aug. 3, for the benefit of the new school building, which is under erection.

THE TAX books are now ready and those who desire to pay will please call at my office and do so, as it will be gladly received. S. M. Owens.

OUR merchants and others have thousands of yards of hunting and flags by the wagon load that they will sell at a big discount. Now's your chance.

DEATH. Mrs. Samuel Clarkson, who was a daughter of Frank Hughes, died at her home near McKinney Tuesday of consumption, after a lingering illness.

THE TAX books are now ready and those who desire to pay will please call at my office and do so, as it will be gladly received. S. M. Owens.

OUR merchants and others have thousands of yards of hunting and flags by the wagon load that they will sell at a big discount. Now's your chance.

DEATH. Mrs. Samuel Clarkson, who was a daughter of Frank Hughes, died at her home near McKinney Tuesday of consumption, after a lingering illness.

THE TAX books are now ready and those who desire to pay will please call at my office and do so, as it will be gladly received. S. M. Owens.

OUR merchants and others have thousands of yards of hunting and flags by the wagon load that they will sell at a big discount. Now's your chance.

DEATH. Mrs. Samuel Clarkson, who was a daughter of Frank Hughes, died at her home near McKinney Tuesday of consumption, after a lingering illness.

THE TAX books are now ready and those who desire to pay will please call at my office and do so, as it will be gladly received. S. M. Owens.

OUR merchants and others have thousands of yards of hunting and flags by the wagon load that they will sell at a big discount. Now's your chance.

DEATH. Mrs. Samuel Clarkson, who was a daughter of Frank Hughes, died at her home near McKinney Tuesday of consumption, after a lingering illness.

THE TAX books are now ready and those who desire to pay will please call at my office and do so, as it will be gladly received. S. M. Owens.

OUR merchants and others have thousands of yards of hunting and flags by the wagon load that they will sell at a big discount. Now's your chance.

DEATH. Mrs. Samuel Clarkson, who was a daughter of Frank Hughes, died at her home near McKinney Tuesday of consumption, after a lingering illness.

THE TAX books are now ready and those who desire to pay will please call at my office and do so, as it will be gladly received. S. M. Owens.

OUR merchants and others have thousands of yards of hunting and flags by the wagon load that they will sell at a big discount. Now's your chance.

DEATH. Mrs. Samuel Clarkson, who was a daughter of Frank Hughes, died at her home near McKinney Tuesday of consumption, after a lingering illness.

THE TAX books are now ready and those who desire to pay will please call at my office and do so, as it will be gladly received. S. M. Owens.

OUR merchants and others have thousands of yards of hunting and flags by the wagon load that they will sell at a big discount. Now's your chance.

DEATH. Mrs. Samuel Clarkson, who was a daughter of Frank Hughes, died at her home near McKinney Tuesday of consumption, after a lingering illness.

THE TAX books are now ready and those who desire to pay will please call at my office and do so, as it will be gladly received. S. M. Owens.

OUR merchants and others have thousands of yards of hunting and flags by the wagon load that they will sell at a big discount. Now's your chance.

DEATH. Mrs. Samuel Clarkson, who was a daughter of Frank Hughes, died at her home near McKinney Tuesday of consumption, after a lingering illness.

THE TAX books are now ready and those who desire to pay will please call at my office and do so, as it will be gladly received. S. M. Owens.

OUR merchants and others have thousands of yards of hunting and flags by the wagon load that they will sell at a big discount. Now's your chance.

DEATH. Mrs. Samuel Clarkson, who was a daughter of Frank Hughes, died at her home near McKinney Tuesday of consumption, after a lingering illness.

THE TAX books are now ready and those who desire to pay will please call at my office and do so, as it will be gladly received. S. M. Owens.

OUR merchants and others have thousands of yards of hunting and flags by the wagon load that they will sell at a big discount. Now's your chance.

DEATH. Mrs. Samuel Clarkson, who was a daughter of Frank Hughes, died at her home near McKinney Tuesday of consumption, after a lingering illness.

THE TAX books are now ready and those who desire to pay will please call at my office and do so, as it will be gladly received. S. M. Owens.

OUR merchants and others have thousands of yards of hunting and flags by the wagon load that they will sell at a big discount. Now's your chance.

DEATH. Mrs. Samuel Clarkson, who was a daughter of Frank Hughes, died at her home near McKinney Tuesday of consumption, after a lingering illness.

THE TAX books are now ready and those who desire to pay will please call at my office and do so, as it will be gladly received. S. M. Owens.

OUR merchants and others have thousands of yards of hunting and flags by the wagon load that they will sell at a big discount. Now's your chance.

DEATH. Mrs. Samuel Clarkson, who was a daughter of Frank Hughes, died at her home near McKinney Tuesday of consumption, after a lingering illness.

THE TAX books are now ready and those who desire to pay will please call at my office and do so, as it will be gladly received. S. M. Owens.

OUR merchants and others have thousands of yards of hunting and flags by the wagon load that they will sell at a big discount. Now's your chance.

DEATH. Mrs. Samuel Clarkson, who was a daughter of Frank Hughes, died at her home near McKinney Tuesday of consumption, after a lingering illness.

THE TAX books are now ready and those who desire to pay will please call at my office and do so, as it will be gladly received. S. M. Owens.

OUR merchants and others have thousands of yards of hunting and flags by the wagon load that they will sell at a big discount. Now's your chance.

DEATH. Mrs. Samuel Clarkson, who was a daughter of Frank Hughes, died at her home near McKinney Tuesday of consumption, after a lingering illness.

THE TAX books are now ready and those who desire to pay will please call at my office and do so, as it will be gladly received. S. M. Owens.

OUR merchants and others have thousands of yards of hunting and flags by the wagon load that they will sell at a big discount. Now's your chance.

DEATH. Mrs. Samuel Clarkson, who was a daughter of Frank Hughes, died at her home near McKinney Tuesday of consumption, after a lingering illness.

THE TAX books are now ready and those who desire to pay will please call at my office and do so, as it will be gladly received. S. M. Owens.

OUR merchants and others have thousands of yards of hunting and flags by the wagon load that they will sell at a big discount. Now's your chance.

DEATH. Mrs. Samuel Clarkson, who was a daughter of Frank Hughes, died at her home near McKinney Tuesday of consumption, after a lingering illness.

THE TAX books are now ready and those who desire to pay will please

